FRESHMAN CLASS PLAY

Jean Hodgson
The ninth grade Speech Department under the direction of Mr. Raven, is presenting Shakespears play
"Twelfth Night" for their annual play.

The play will be held on Thursday and Friday nights, April
5th and 6th in the Jr.
High Auditorium. The

Viola were seperated and she comes to the Police looking for her brother - is a Courtier - is in love
with Olivia.
Malvolio - serves and is also in love
with Olivia.
Maria - is Olivias
lady - in - waiting.
She is a very witty person who loves to play tricks on people.

8:00 PM both nites & will last approximately one and a half hours. There will be one ten minute and one five minute intermission.

The price of tickets is 35¢ for students and 50 cents for adults. A ticket purchased for a Thursday will not be valid on Friday night.

Most of the boys and girls think they won't understand the play because it was written by Shakespeare but the dialect has been cut so that it will be easily understood by school children.

Copies of original Shakespearian costumes have been acquired from a Tampa costume house. They are all exclusive and will add a lot of color to the play.

An Italian-Shakespearian set will be used. The Phillip Construction Co. helped build it and the rest was built by students.

Tommy Chancy
Gerold Goldsmith
Attendants -
Vano McClurg
Bobby Schwartz
Mollie Sloan
Leslie Jones

Here is a short description of the main characters :

Olivia - a rich countess who is looking for a husband .
Andrew - a foolish suitor to Olivia who is conveniently rich .
Sebastian - and Antonio - is a friend of Sebastian's who is very adventurous .

Toby - is Olivia's Uncle who is always drunk .

These boys and girls of the speech class (and the cast who do not have speech) have been practicing for almost six weeks and have put a lot of time and energy into it .

The stage managers are George Coward and Ruthie Green .

Joyce Weeks; the Business Manager, takes care of all the financial matters .

So for excitement, color, drama, and for a downright good time, plan to by your tickets now, for the sensational

" TWELFTH NIGHT "

HORNET WHISPERS

By F. S.

What happened to P. L. (hot lips) on the steps the other day?

What did J. F. say to P. C. on that hay-ride to Sand Mountain? We hear they had a wonderful time.

"Bongo," have you caught your latest flame yet? We hear it's D. B.

We pity M. C., she can't make up her mind.

We hear the cast of "T. N." went rather roughly over the weekend without F. L. R.

What did R. S. say to A. H.? Be sure to see "Twelfth Night."

We're sorry to hear about Douglas H.'s sickness and hope he'll be well enough to be in "T. N."

Good luck to the cast of "Twelfth Night."

It seems that all the cute seventh grade boys are going with the cute ninth graders. D. B. plus P. S. and B. M. plus J. F. in seventh grade make cute couples.

Home Room Mothers gave an Easter

Who's that boy that you always manage to run into in the hall, Mary? Could it possibly be D. M.? If anybody hears any juicy news, turn it in to me (Winnie Stockard) Be sure, though, before you turn it in that it is fit to be printed. No teacher's names can be used (Unfortunately) Cosch Berker had a song dedicated to him the other night on "Smoke House Serenade." The name of it was "Foolish Heart" sung by Billy Eckstine.

Be sure to listen every Saturday night from 10-11 to the Junior Exchange Club's "Nite Kap". Phone in requests to 5-117, station W O N N.

The Honor Society.....by Nell

The National Junior Honor Society is going to hold its annual banquet and dance on April 20th. The dinner will be held at Morrison's Cafeteria banquet room. The dinner will be for members only. A formal dance will follow at the Civic Center on Orange Street. Boys should wear coats and ties; girls long or short formals. The dance is open to all.

The program committee has worked up a dilly of a program. The committee is: Anne Huston, Cindy Cline, Eleanor Wisniewski, Patti Hester, Alice Bradford, and party for room 227. They had a picnic supper in the park and then went skating. J. D. was in charge. Each student brought their own supper. It was held from 5:30 - 9:00 p.m.

GOSSIP GAZETTE

Winnie Stockard

What happened at M. C.'s party? It appears that long walks (catching fireflies?!!) have become quite popular lately. . . . Have you heard the latest on a recent hayride that M. and J. went on? Tell us about it, Marjorie. . . . A certain R. G. and J. F. have lockers right down the hall. Run, boys--question of the month..What is D. K. so mixed up about?...Be sure to see "The Twelfth Night". It's going to be terrific!

Pat Larson.

Those getting up a super orchestra are Billy Hampton, and George Coward.

The favors for the banquet are being made by Patti Welsh, Joe Sargeant, Marty Chatham, Chris Simpson, Judy Klein, Martha Jo Bridges, and Jean Hodgson, so they ought to be great.

The decorating committee will decorate the Civic Center and is going to create something out-of-this-world. The committee is: Mary Langford, Dona Schierhorn, Ginger Harrel, Cornelia Bryant, Charlene Noble, Beverly Boswell, and Nell Pattaway.

If you have any bright ideas in writing, just submit them. The deadline is four days before the paper comes out.

SPORTSby Jean

The Hornets had a real good basketball season this year.

The Green team had a 4 win, 6 loss season, and the White team had a 6 win, 4 loss season. . . . Also the White team beat the Green team twice.

We're gonna have a real hepped up baseball team this year. Here's a list of the boys and the positions they play;

Pitchers - Jim Gunter, Bob Walker, Gene Reedy, Jim McCall, Ed Peterson, and Ken Smith.

1st Base - Morris Pickens
Jackie Hamelryck and Bobby Harper.

2nd Base - Johnny Goddard,
John Powell.

3rd Base - Kenneth Hunt.

Short Stop- Bernie Haskins,
Buddy Coone.

Catcher - Jerry Davis, Ray
Olinger.

Center Field - Fred Johnston
Ray Olinger.

Right Field - Bob Butler,
Lenny Edgar, Larry Bagget

EDITOR'S NOTES

Did you like the paper? Any Improvements in our form well, just don't stand there, tell us.

I'm sure that everybody learned a startling lesson in the shocking film and interesting speech by Randy Robinson in the assembly sponsored by Coach Stokes.

What would you do if
By M.F.S.

Several students and teachers were interviewed and came up with these answers to the following question .

" What would you do if someone gave you a 'heta' : "

Roger Sherman - " They wouldn't dare ! "

Pat (P L) Hansen - " If
it was something hateful , I'd give it to Jon. "

Jimmy Foster - " I'd take the paper off and eat
it. "

Terry McCullough - " I'd eat the paper , too . "

David Johnson - " I'd slap
'em in the teeth with
it . "

Bobby Chipman - " I'd cash it in . "

Dona Schierhorn - " Heh,

My sincere thanks to Miss Keller and Mr. Doyle for sponsoring this little episode.

PETES PLATTER CHATTER

By Frances Sperry

"Eddie My Love"

I guess "Our Love Affair" just wasn't meant to be.

As I sit here in my room in "Heartbreak Hotel", I keep thinking of all the times you said, "I was the one "for you."

I'm sending you back your "Band of Gold" as you asked me to. I keep asking myself, "Why do Fools Fall in Love?"

Looking at your picture, "A tear Fell" and it reminded me that "I'll never stop Loving You." I remember when you held me "Tenderly" in your arms and said "Love is a Many Splendored Thing!"

And how about the time we did the "Rock and Roll Waltz"? You were so "Sweet and Gentle" that night.

I guess these are all

This Phillips - "I'd throw it away."
Pat Martin - "I'd sit on it."
Mrs. Miller - "I'd probably knock 'em through the wall."
Miss McCall - "I'd kill it before it multiplied."
Mr. Williamson - "...I'd paint 'it."
Mrs. Wesson - "I'd probably drop it and scream."

..... Incidentally the word "hetra" is the word heart all jumbled up. Relieved?

JOKES...by Jimmy

"In spring a young man's fancy turns to what a girl has been thinking of all year."

Notice in a rural weekly:

"Anyone found near my chicken house at night will be found there the next morning."

"Did you see this bear on the floor?" asked the employer. "I shot him in Alaska, it was a case of me or him."

"Well, he certainly makes a better rug," yawned the weary listener.
