

Lakeland Hi-Wire

By Fred Johnson

Lakeland High's Marching Commanders, under the direction of Thomas Munalo, will be host to 1200 musical-minded students at the Annual Florida Bandmasters Association band contest for District 3 here Saturday.

The Commanders will play "Symphony in G Minor" by Kulinikov for their required number and "Toccatta", by Frescobaldi for their chosen number.

"Purple Carnival" will be used as the warm-up march. Solos and ensembles entered by the band are among the highlights of the day's activities. One of these is Brenda Smith who will do a twirling demonstration. The well-known trumpet trio will also perform.

DCT DINNER

The DCT department has set Thursday for its annual employer-employee dinner. This affair is planned to help increase better relations between students and employers. A Southern Theme will be used.

FINAL GIRLS DANCE

The last in the series of girl-sponsored dances will be held Friday night at the Teen Midway by Opti-Misses and the Anchor Club. The band is the popular Five Sounds; the theme, Beatnik, symbolizing a beat generation.

LATIN OFFICER CANDIDATES

David Wendel will be seeking the office of president, and Ann Dawson, treasurer, when the Classical Club members go to Plant High School in Tampa for the Latin Forum this weekend.

Johnny Cooper, Carol Few and Leith Taylor have roles in "Room Full of Roses" Little Theatre Production on April 14-16.

The heading for this column was designed by ROGER SHERMAN.